Privacy Policy

St. Michael's Golf Club Ltd is subject to the provisions of the Privacy Act 1988 and is committed to safeguarding personal information provided by Members, Visitors and Staff. The club has a commitment to privacy and the safeguarding of member, visitor, and staff personal information.

We will not disclose your personal information to any other organization or person unless there is a legal requirement to do so. The club may disclose personal information to relevant authorities if it reasonably believes that there is a threat to an individual's life, health or safety, or public health or safety. If the Club has reason to suspect that unlawful activity has been, is being or may be engaged in, personal information may be used or disclosed as a necessary part of any investigation and reporting to relevant persons or authorities.

Your personal information may be used by the Club for marketing purposes to improve our services and to provide you with the latest information about those services, any related services, and promotions.

The Club may disclose your information to third parties that provide services under contract to the Club. These contracts require the third party to keep your personal information confidential and secure.

If you do not wish to receive information about services and promotions, the Club, on request, will remove your name from mailing lists.

You have the right to access any personal information that the Club may hold about you, including the right of correction of your information. The Club will generally not charge a fee for you to access your personal information.

If you require any further information, please contact our offices on 02 9326 8000 ext 5.
